Governing Language

Any non-English version of our content has been provided for your convenience and represents an unofficial translation of the English text. In the event of discrepancy, the English version shall govern. Whereas French is also accepted as an official in circumstances warranted when French is the only chosen language especially within the province of Quebec.

Governing Law

Except as otherwise provided in an agreement with TZC, the laws of the province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable therein govern the interpretation, validity and effect of the provisions of this agreement notwithstanding any conflict of laws or provisions of your domicile, residence or physical location. You consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the province of Ontario in any action or proceeding instituted under or related to this agreement.

You further acknowledge and agree that, in the course of providing you with the services, neither TZC nor their representatives will provide you with any legal, tax or accounting advice regarding the profitability of any derivative or security investment, or any decision in respect thereof. If necessary or appropriate, seek independent advice from qualified professional advisors to help you determine the suitability of your investment decisions regarding transactions for your account(s).
